45 David Street, Morrinsville 3300, NEW ZEALAND | Principal: Brian Harrop

A Big welcome to Isla, Kayden and Mace who have joined us at David Street School.
Nau mai, haere mai ki te kura o Rawiri.

Our junior school students and teachers have delivered a fantastic presentation of "Goodnight Kids" this week. Congratulations to you all and especially the junior school children who have demonstrated their amazing dramatic talents already and shown an enormous amount of courage by performing on stage to an audience. Today is their final show. DVDs of the show will be available for purchase, see the order form further in this newsletter.

Today a large group of our senior school children have gone to test themselves in the annual Tough Girl /Guy Mud Run Challenge in Ngaruawahia. They are due back at school around 12.30 – 1pm.

Good Luck to our top cross country runners who are off to the Inter-school Cross Country at Tahuna tomorrow.

Friday 25 June

Goodnight Kids

The Junior team would like to sincerely thank all the wonderful families that helped make our show a success. Thank you to our amazing costume helpers, to the face paint helpers and to everyone that came along to watch and cheer our children on. Room 19 has a special shout out to Hollie Keogh and Gracie Johns for choreographing and teaching Room 19's dance and BIG Thank You to Brooke Stevenson and Raewyn Christiansen for sewing and creating Room 19's costumes.

We are so proud of how courageous they all were to perform in front of up to 180 people at each show. We hope you enjoyed the show as much as we did.
