A Big welcome to Liana and Tahlia who have joined us at David Street School. Nau mai, haere mai ki te Kura o Rawiri.

We would like to thank everyone for your ongoing support of our morning and afternoon drop off and pick up routines. These routines will remain in place until further notice. Keep updated via our facebook page or Hero app.

Reminder: We are encouraging all students to come onsite by themselves or with school friends at our entry gates. All visitors/parents where it is essential for them to come onto the school grounds during the day must wear a mask, enter via our main gate, and sign in.

Values Awards

David Street School celebrates children who have been showing our school values in their behaviour and actions at school.

Recipients of the Principals Awards were:

Jaeda Zwart:

Jaeda displays all the school values all the time.

She is kind, caring, hard-working and self-reflective in all areas. Jaeda is a true valued member of our classroom.

Te Rukei Karauria:

Te Rukei received her award for showing great courage and leadership through helping others with te reo this week. She always strives for her best in all areas.

Aqua-Lee Rangi:

Aqua-Lee received her award for being a determined learner who thinks about how she can be 'Better Every Single Time'. She is diligent and shows respect for her learning. Aqua-Lee is kind and shows empathy to others.

Anya Clark-Robinson:

Anya's dedication to her learning is visible through her improved literacy. She models our school values in the way that she takes responsibility for her learning.

Mikayla Pakeho:

Mikayla received her award for being a reflective learner. She takes responsibility for thinking about her learning focus, especially in reading, making sure that she thinks about what she needs to be successful. Mikayla should be very proud of the progress she has made.

Grace Clark:

Grace received her award for being a respectful learner and role model at all times. She sets a great example for others by showing all the David Street Values even when no-one is watching.

Room 18 - Investigators

Room 18 enjoyed "Investigating Change" last week while creating some amazing Bubble Art.

We learnt about what changes we could make to our water by adding some dish wash liquid, food colouring and air! We then used the bubbles to create some beautiful patterns on our paper! Room 18 are AMAZING Investigators, working together and learning about change.

Junior Poetry Finals

Our Junior Poetry Festival was held on Wednesday morning. It was a difficult decision for our judges from Morrinsville Intermediate School, Mrs Andrea Devane, Anessa Ginever, and Rhys Gibberd.

Congratulations to the place getters from each junior year, and to all of our poetry finalists who presented poems today, you were all amazing. Place Getters:

Year 2

1st Gemma Semmens - Poetry Cup Winner

2nd Lincoln Jamieson

3rd Moss Byers

Year 1

1st Ryan Garrud

2nd Ayla Clark

3rd Shaylah Murray

Yummy Apple Stickers - Extension

Yummy Stickers Collection has been extended until everyone in the country is at level 2. So keep sending in your stickers! Yummy stickers will then be converted into a winning share of the $200,000 sports prize pool from DG Sport for our school.
