Administration Block Blessing / Opening

Yesterday's blessing and opening of our new building was a warm and happy celebration of a building reflecting the generous gifts of time and taonga for all corners of our school and community. These gifts included:

- Stunning tāniko artwork which was fantastically crafted by every child, our whole staff of 67, our BOT, our Home and School and our kuia. They reflect the story of every child and grown up who works here and shows their sense of belonging.
- Our korowai, named Kahurangi, meaning treasured possession, was lovingly gifted by Christine Barrett. Kahurangi stands proudly at the entrance to the school representing manaakitanga and aroha to guide and care for our school and our people.
- Our kaumātua and kuia gifted much aroha, advice and respect from start of the project though to the opening.
- Our Whānau room was furnished and resourced magnificently by our Home and School.
- The framed artwork in the whānau room was made by Anna Dewhurst and Sarah Godsall. It represents the twenty one cultures we have in the school.
- Our new sick bay blankets were lovingly crocheted and knitted by Ange Martin and her Mum, Lorraine.
- The school logo was gifted in appreciation by Rob Gunn.
- Our kapa haka children and their tutors gifted waiata and haka for the occasion.
- Our local Kelvin Lalich Builders built us a high quality magnificent building, built without a hitch and delivered on time in what were very challenging supply shortages. Kelvin, you are the dream team.
- Our BOT, were finally able to secure the government funding and approval for the building. It was a work begun nearly twenty years ago. It has been a frustrating journey, and was desperately needed. Thank you team.
- Staff, children, board and community gave whatever they could to make the day a special one, and established a sense of shared ownership of our new building.

Please make time to visit and view the taonga gifted and built by us all.
